A Note from Pastor Derrick

Sermon on the Mount Series - Part V

Has God really said you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil unless you die? If we are honest, we must all admit the same voice in the Garden of Eden asks that question to us every day. I know he does to me. When he does, we have a choice to make: will we follow the vice of the serpent of the Garden of Eden or will we choose to listen and believe Jesus, the voice of truth, who tells a different story. In Part V of the Sermon on the Mount Series, we continue to listen to Jesus' voice from the mountain and apply what he's spoken and spoken very clearly to our lives.

Here I am to say that you're my God.

The Youth experienced an Opportunity of a Lifetime yesterday while attending

THE SEND

Libby said the day was a huge success as kids of all cultures gathered to experience the presence of Jesus. She further stated that it surely was a small glimpse of what heaven would be like.

The youth enjoyed the event and came away energized and excited.

One More Thing

THY HIDDEN ONES

"Thick green leaves from the soft brown earth,
Happy springtime hath called them forth;
First faint promise of summer bloom
Breathes from the fragrant, sweet perfume,
Under the leaves.

"Lift them! what marvelous beauty lies
Hidden beneath, from our thoughtless eyes!
May flowers, rosy or purest white,
Lift their cups to the sudden light,
Under the leaves.

"Are there no lives whose holy deeds-
Seen by no eye save His who reads
Motive and action-in silence grow
Into rare beauty, and bud and blow
Under the leaves?

"Fair white flowers of faith and trust,
Springing from spirits bruised and crushed;
Blossoms of love, rose-tinted and bright,
Touched and painted with Heaven's own light
Under the leaves.

"Full fresh clusters of duty borne,
Fairest of all in that shadow grown;
Wondrous the fragrance that sweet and rare
Comes from the flower-cups hidden there
Under the leaves.

"Though unseen by our vision dim,
Bud and blossom are known to Him;
Wait we content for His heavenly ray-
Wait till our Master Himself one day
Lifteth the leaves."

"God calls many of His most valued workers from the unknown multitude" (Luke 14:23).
