A Message from Pastor Derrick

Perfect for Heaven An Exposition of Romans #2 Romans 3:9-27

Gospel Principle #2:

Heaven is God's abode; righteousness means perfectly good, just and holy. Nothing in heaven can be anything less than perfectly good, just and holy. And that poses a problem with only one solution for you and me.

The Problem

1. Perfect for Heaven is God's standard for evaluating me (10-12).
2. Perfect for Heaven isn't what I think of when evaluating me (13-18).
3. Striving to be Perfect for Heaven only reveals I'm Imperfect for Heaven (20).

The Solution

1. Faith in One Person (21-22)
2. Because of the Blood of One Person (25)
3. For the Glory of One Person (27)

There is a need for assistance in the Nursery and Children's Church during the Church Service. If you haven't signed up already, please contact

Chris Glading either by email

chris@chrisglading.com or by phone: 772-302-7320

It would be optimal to have approximately 15 volunteers. That way you would only be serving once every 4-6 weeks - making the load lighter for everyone.

Are You In?? The Youth and Chris will be forever grateful.

One More Thing...

Our Heavenly Inheritance

1 Peter 1:1-9

Do you have too much stuff? If you're like most people, the answer is yes. The problem is that whatever we accumulate demands our time and attention. It must be obtained, maintained, organized, and eventually discarded or given away. But nothing comes with us when we die. Our security isn't found in possessions, but in our relationship with Christ.

Peter assures us that we have an inheritance waiting for us in heaven (1 Peter 1:4)—one that is safe and secure because we're not the ones guarding it. Our treasure, which is held and protected by God, cannot be stolen or ruined. It is ...

Imperishable. Heavenly treasure will never wear out or need fixing. It's forever new.

Undefiled. Our inheritance is pure and can't be spoiled by sin.

Unfading. It's not affected by the passing of time and will never wear away or become less beautiful.

Our eternal hope is secure—and in God's presence, everything will be perfect. When life is tough, we can find hope in knowing what awaits us in the future. This awareness increases our desire to live a holy life, because we know the perfection of our destiny: absolute holiness and freedom from sin. From the Daily Devotional of Charles Stanley

I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God!
Deuteronomy 32:3
