A Note from Pastor Derrick

Creating Ishmaels - Part 2

Galatians 4:21-31; 5:1

When we live by untamed desires and try to control our circumstances to our own benefit, we choose to reject God's promises and refuse to wait on him. However, when we believe God's promises and wait on the Lord, we choose to reject untamed desires and trust God to work our circumstances for his benefit. What are you creating in your life right now? Are you creating Ishmaels? Or Issacs? What covenant are you living under?

Today we finish our important two week study of Ishmael and Isaac from the Book of Galatians.

PRAY

Trust and obey, For there's no other way.

To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey

Please keep Pastor Derrick, along with a few members of the Genesis Congregation and other Pastors from the Treasure Coast Community as they travel to Israel this coming Wednesday for ten days. Please pray that God will touch hearts through their efforts and that they will leave a powerful and positive witness during their visit.

One More Thing-

The hawthorn hedge that keeps us from intruding,
Looks very fierce and bare
When stripped by winter, every branch protruding
Its thorns that would wound and tear.
But spring-time comes; and like the rod that budded,
Each twig breaks out in green;
And cushions soft of tender leaves are studded,
Where spines alone were seen,
The sorrows, that to us seem so perplexing,
Are mercies kindly sent
To guard our wayward souls from sadder vexing,
And greater ills prevent.
To save us from the pit, no screen of roses
Would serve for our defense,
The hindrance that completely interposes
Stings back like thorny fence.
At first when smarting from the shock, complaining
Of wounds that freely bleed,
God's hedges of severity us paining,
May seem severe indeed.
But afterwards, God's blessed spring-time cometh,
And bitter murmurs cease;
The sharp severity that pierced us bloometh,
And yields the fruits of peace.
Then let us sing, our guarded way thus wending
Life's hidden snares among,
Of mercy and of judgment sweetly blending;
Earth's sad, but lovely song.
