Continued Prayers for:

Don and Dorla Randall were back in church this morning and thanks everyone for their prayers. Don has had his last treatment and says he is feeling fine. We will continue to pray for a "cancer free" diagnosis.

Gloria Thomas sends her sincere appreciation to everyone for all the prayers and asks that we continue to pray for David's physical strength so that they could attend church again soon.

Ken & Celeste Freeman

Please add the following to your prayer list: Lynn Lindsey as she faces surgery at 7:00 tomorrow morning and Ron Rupchis as he contemplates eye surgery in the near future.

A Message from Pastor Derrick

In Every Lord's Supper We Partake John 13

One of the most beautiful things about the Lord's Supper (Communion) is this: it tells us the story of Jesus and our response to it. It reminds us of his sacrifice and compels us to reflect on the degree we are willing to follow in his footsteps; it illustrates his kindness that led us to repentance and beckons us to love one another in light of it.

What a beautiful image! What a majestic Savior! What a special opportunity we have before us today!

Revelations:

- Passover Lamb (13:1)
- Kindness That Leads to Repentance (13:2-5)

Responses:

- Reflection (13:21-24)
- Love One Another (13:34-35)

Next Week-New Series: The Tale of Six Lepers

One More Thing...

Here are some of the truest, most beautiful words ever written: “Why, my soul, are you downcast? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise Him, my Savior and my God” (Psalm 42:5).

Hope is a small word, but it is one of the most powerful. Why? Because in hope lies the power of the human soul to turn to God and live as if His promises are going to come true. “Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the LORD” (Psalm 31:24).

Some people think hope is an emotion. “I’m feeling hopeful,” they say, but true hope is a discipline, a determination to believe in God’s reality and power, even when the world seems to be crashing down around you. That is the genius and the power of hope. It flies in the face of calamity, saying, “The world can do its worst to me. But still I will hope. Still I will know that this is the day the Lord has made, and He will take care of me.”

The key to surviving any challenge or crisis is hope. Hope that Jesus loves you. Hope that He is, right now, working out a solution for you. Hope that the future you place in His hands will be better than the present you hold in your own. “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future” (Jeremiah 29:11).

Practice this hope, even if you have to will yourself to do it. With its power, you will overcome all things. “Those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint” (Isaiah 40:31).
