A Message from Pastor Derrick

When You Kneel on Your Family's Behalf

2 Timothy 1:3-7

For This Reason, I Kneel Conclusion

Here's a command from the Scriptures we don't hear very often: "fan into flame the gift of God." Have you seen the look in a young person's eyes who has just had the flame of the gospel extinguished in their own home; usually because the child takes Jesus more seriously than they do? I have on numerous occasions; it breaks my heart every time.

What delights me, however, is when the exact opposite happens. Instead of putting the flame out, parents fan what God has begun in their children's hearts into flame; encouraging them to obey the Lord in all things, beginning with baptism.

Here's the reason: the home was instituted before the church was. That means we learn more about what pleases God - or doesn't - through the examples that surround us every day: our family members. So friends, in a world where the family is continually under attack, may we be a people who intercede to the Father on behalf of the people we love the most. Preach!

Four Challenges When You Kneel on Behalf of Those You Love the Most:

1. Recall Past Examples of Faithfulness in Your Family (2-5a)
 - Like Solomon Did (1 Kgs 8:56-57)
 - Like Writer(s) of the Psalms of Remembrance Did (Ps 105:8-11)
2. Recall Present Examples of Faithfulness in Your Family (5b)
 - God Has Designed the Home to Teach Spiritual Realities
 - Meaning We Can See Evil Modeled, Like Ahaziah Did (2 Chr 22:2-3)
 - Or Righteousness Modeled, Like Timothy Did
3. Resolve to Fan a Flame, Not Put it Out (6)
 - #1 in the "Extinguishing the Flame" Hall of Shame: Lot (Gn 13:11)
 - #1 in the "Fanning the Flame" Hall of Fame: Jonadab (Jer 35:19)
4. Pray God's Victorious Character Over Everyone you Love, Including Yourself (7)
 - Not Timidity (lacking in self-assurance; courage; or bravery)
 - But Power (strength)
 - And Love (agape; with the character of God)
 - And Self-Discipline (training of self; aimed at improvement)
