Our Father who art in heaven

We had heard there was going to be a surprise for the Congregation today and indeed there was. The leader of the group, Ryan Payne, delivered an inspiring message about what Worship really is. Ryan stated that it's more than just a song; it is the priority that we place on who God is in our lives. It is a matter of the heart.

ATTABOY

We thank Attaboy for leading us in worship today. Their message was clear: beyond the confusing, disorienting noises that swirl around us, liberation and hope can be found through Jesus Christ our Lord. And that grace helps us find patience, healing, and courage.

Praise Him

Rejoice!

One More Thing...

We can sing our cares away easier than we can reason them away. Sing in the morning. The birds are the earliest to sing, and birds are more without care than anything else that I know of. Sing at evening. Singing is the last thing that robins do. When they have done their daily work; when they have flown their last flight, and picked up their last morsel of food, then on a topmost twig, they sing one song of praise.

Oh, that we might sing morning and evening, and let song touch song all the way through.

Don't let the song go out of your life
though it chance sometimes to flow in a minor strain; it will blend again
With the major tone you know.

What though shadows rise to obscure life's skies;
And hide for a time the sun,
The sooner they'll lift and reveal the rift,
If you let the melody run.

Don't let the song go out of your life
Though the voice may have lost its trill,
Though the tremulous note may die in your throat,
Let it sing in your spirit still.

Don't let the song go out of your life
Let it ring in the soul while here;
And when you go hence, 'twill follow you thence,
And live on in another sphere.
