A Message from Pastor Derrick

Body Language
An Exposition of Romans #9
Romans 12:3-8

Paul, the writer of half of your NT, understood Body Language. But the kind he understood had nothing to do with smiles and grins. Rather, it had everything to do with how the community that was the church in Rome related to each other. So it is with us, the body of Christ.

Good Body Language:

1. Begins with a fair and sober estimation of yourself (3)

The Reason for Estimation - More connected; yet more alone than ever

Too High an Estimation - Nothing in me I can't trust

Too Low an Estimation - Nothing in me I can trust

Right Estimation - Confidence without conceit in proportion to faith

2. Grasps full picture of how God non-verbally communicates with the world (4)

Human Body is Unified - Needs of individual parts not in competition

Human Body is Diverse - Every part must be itself; allows others to be also

Human Body is Mutual - Each part belongs to other and needs each other

3. Confesses that a chasm exists between unity and uniformity (5)

Uniformity - same/exactness in form, mannerisms, thought, convictions

Uniformity - required only when diversity would produce heresy

Unity - harmony that values differences

Unity - requires grace, unlike uniformity

Unity - real people have quirks and you choose to love anyway = real relationships

4. My responsibility to be a gift to community and then to the world (6-8)

Giftedness with gracefulness is a delight to watch in action

Spiritual Gift = any ability empowered by the Spirit used to build body in image of the Gift-Giver.

GENTLE REMINDER:

WEEK OF PRAYER

The week of prayer for home missions begins today and runs through March 8, 2020.

The offering is named after Annie Armstrong.

Annie Armstrong was unstoppable in her passion for missions.
(1850-1938)

Annie was born in Baltimore at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet, her devotion to Christ led her to a life of service and leadership. She organized women to pray, to give and to meet the needs around them. She challenged pastors and churches to action and rallied vital support for missionaries. Ultimately, Annie was recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires millions today.

"Honored in 1934 when The Home Missions Offering was re-named for her to encourage more to follow her sacrificial example.

Today, over $1 billion has been given through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering®. All gifts-100%-support thousands of missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries across the U.S. and Canada.

Note: If you feel lead to contribute to the Annie Armstrong Offering, please make your check payable to Genesis Church with Annie Armstrong Offering in the memo and mail to Genesis Church or place in the offering basket where a special envelope is provided. The Church Treasurer will mail one check from our church to NAMB.

One More Thing...

Our Textbook

2 Timothy 3:10-17

You and I know there are many people in the world who reject the Bible's authority. But have you considered that some of them are Christians? Many believers unwittingly do this when they choose which parts of the Bible to believe and which parts to throw out.

But the truth is that the Bible is the very Word of God—spoken to and through His messengers, passed down through time, and relevant to every generation. It's God's magnificent revelation of Himself to the world, and everything He said was intentional.

We cannot break up Scripture or pull pieces out of context without the risk of altering its meaning. In 2 Timothy 3:16, we read that every word of the Bible is God-breathed and valuable. That means no part of it was written without a specific purpose, so whatever portion we're reading, we should pay attention to surrounding verses, the book's intended audience, and historical context.

Do you ever choose which parts of the Bible you want to believe and follow? Let's bravely ask the Holy Spirit to show us any sections of Scripture we may have thrown aside—and to help us trust in the authority of God's Word.
