A Message from Pastor Derrick

The Necessary Impossible Standard An Exposition of Romans #10 Romans 12:9-21

Should Jesus demand from us anything less than a perfect display of the type of love he modeled, he would cease to be worthy of our worship. The model of love play elucidates for us in Romans 12:9-21, based on the life of Jesus, is a necessary but impossible standard. You can't model this on your own; you need help from God. We all do.

1. (You) Jesus was honest, sincere, and straight-forward. So must you be also (9-10).

- Love defined by hatred of its exact opposite
- Correcting what you abhor by behaving in the exact opposite manner

2. (God) Jesus was set apart. So must you be also (11-12).

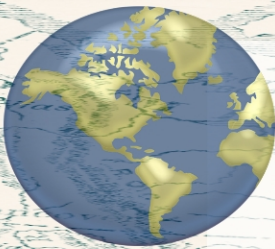

- Produced by stewing and boiling over things worth stewing and boiling over
- Results in vertical fruit that impacts attitude, virtue, and closet righteousness
- Results in horizontal fruit God desires from His people from cover to cover

3. (Others) Jesus had radically unnatural ethics. So must you also (14-16).

- It's one thing not to curse enemies but entirely another to wish for their blessings
- A sorrow shared is half the trouble
- A joy shared is a joy made double

4. (Others) Jesus knew how to love when wronged. So must you also (17-21).

- Trust God - He smites to heal
- Do Positive Good
- Believe with your whole heart hate can't drive out hate - only love can do that

One More Thing...
Serving Christ
Matthew 25:34-40

Stop for a moment and consider the purpose of your life. Are you living to pursue your own interests or success? Does your energy revolve around your family members? Perhaps your ambition is to change the world for the better.

All of these aims—even the last one, which sounds so selfless—are futile. The only goal of lasting value and fulfillment is serving Christ. As His followers, we should model our life after His. And Mark 10:45 tells us that "even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve." We honor Him by doing likewise.

Yet, sometimes we can feel overwhelmed when we consider the amazing ways that other believers are serving the Lord. With God on His side, King David led great armies into war. Today, there are evangelists who speak to tens of thousands, and many lives are saved. How could anything we do compare to accomplishments like these? And while comparisons may discourage us, Christians use other excuses for not trying—such as a lack of experience or having the wrong personality for the task. But God's call for each person is unique. He will provide the words, ability, and circumstances so that you can achieve what He wants done. Remember, our Father is the one who makes the difference. We are merely tools, and we're blessed to be used by Him.

Are you demonstrating your love for the Lord by serving others? Live in such a way that each evening you can tell Him, "Lord, as best I know how, I have attempted to serve Your purpose today."
