A Note from Pastor Derrick

Between Two Thieves
Sermon on the Mount #9
Matthew 6:25-34

The great preacher, Warren Wiersbe, once proclaimed to an audience of preachers: "It is often said that we are continually being crucified between two thieves - the regrets of yesterday and the worries of tomorrow."

How true for all of us, not just preachers! Once upon a time, there was a man who was crucified between two thieves who commanded us all to stop living in regret and worrying about tomorrow. His name is Jesus.

The Thieves We Live Between

1. Regrets of Yesterday (Lamentations 1:1)
2. The Worries of Tomorrow (Genesis 15:2)

What They Steal

1. Joy (Matthew 6:25)
2. Perspective as a Child of God (Matthew 6:31)

What Jesus, Who Died Between Two Thieves, Says To Us About These Stealers

1. Therefore (Matthew 6:25)
2. Lesser to the Greater (Matthew 6:26-30)
3. Anxiety in Proper Place (Matthew 6:33-34)
 - o Anxiety That's Allowed in the NT - The Lord's Work; Concern for Others
 - o Anxiety That's Not Allowed in the NT - Life Matters Only God Can Solve

You're the living God. You're my saving grace. You will reign forever.

One More Thing

Christ is building His kingdom with earth's broken things. Men want only the strong, the successful, the victorious, the unbroken, in building their kingdoms; but God is the God of the unsuccessful, of those who have failed. Heaven is filling with earth's broken lives, and there is no bruised reed that Christ cannot take and restore to glorious blessedness and beauty. He can take the life crushed by pain or sorrow and make it into a harp whose music shall be all praise. He can lift earth's saddest failure up to heaven's glory.

-J. R. Miller

"Follow Me, and I will make you"
Make you speak My words with power,
Make you channels of My mercy,
Make you helpful every hour.

"Follow Me, and I will make you"
Make you what you cannot be
Make you loving, trustful, godly,
Make you even like to Me.

-Streams in the Desert

You're my Savior, Messiah, Redeemer and Friend.
