The Impact of Agape

Redeeming Simplicity: An Exposition of 1 John #8

1 John 3:16-24

The great D.L. Moody once said "the world has yet to see what God can do with a man fully consecrated to him. By God's help, I aim to be that man." Well friends, the world has yet to see what God can do with a church and a people who commit themselves to loving like Jesus. And by God's help, we aim to be that church and people.

1. What we believe impacts what we do (16-18)

- a. A definition (16)
- b. An example (17)
- c. An admonition (18)

2. What we believe and do impacts our confidence before God (19-21)

- a. Truth = rest in His presence (19)
- b. Conviction = God is greater = mercy (20)
- c. Truth + Conviction + Mercy = confidence (21)

3. Our confidence before God impacts our prayer life (22)

- a. Why prayers are not answered - (1) faithless petition; (2) smugness; (3) lethargy
- b. Why they are = (1) command keep gains the ear; (2) right spirit moves Him to act

4. Prayer life impacts our freedom, joy and true power for living (23-24)

- a. The Spirit seals
- b. The Spirit never lies or misleads
- c. The Spirit empowers us to not be ashamed as imperfect but forgiven people

(2 Cor. 9:7)

It's almost THANKSGIVING and there may be some that find themselves alone for one reason or another on Thanksgiving Day. If you find yourself in that situation, Gloria Cutting is offering you an opportunity to spend Thanksgiving with a few friends. She has done a little research regarding restaurants that offers full Thanksgiving dinners, including beverage and dessert that are reasonably priced from $20-$25. For more information, call Gloria at 772-633-0209 and you will either have fun with existing friends or make new friends. It's a Win-Win either way.

One More Thing...

How to Get the Most Out of Your Work
Matthew 20:25-28

According to Scripture, work is to be part of the believer's life. We all have daily tasks, and many Christians hold jobs outside the home. Some people view these as drudgery. Others wake up excited to face the day's challenges. What is your outlook?

There is an important biblical principle to follow if you are going to enjoy your work: View yourself as a servant. This might be hard if you feel unappreciated or your coworkers are difficult. But consider the example that the Lord set for us. He was rejected, tortured, and crucified. Yet Jesus was willing to serve even His tormentors with His attitude and, ultimately, with His life. Colossians 3:23-24 states, "Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men . . . It is the Lord Christ whom you serve."

When I was in college, this proved to be a valuable perspective. I worked in the bleachery, which was the hottest and most uncomfortable job at the local textile mill. At first, I focused on how much I disliked this position. But I decided to change my attitude and look for opportunities to serve Jesus through my work. For the first time, the heat did not bother me. In fact, I was eager to share my faith with those around me. People listened and responded because they noticed my demeanor.

No job is perfect; each position has negative aspects. But we can find joy and excitement even in the most menial task when we decide to work for God. Choose to serve Christ in all you do. After all, why face each day with dread when you could experience excitement and anticipation?
