A Note from Pastor Derrick

THE LEAGUE OF PARDONED REBELS

PART VII: THE VILEST OFFENDER WHO TRULY BELIEVED: MATTHEW (LEVI)

I love the disciple named Matthew (Levi) because his name means "gift of God." One problem though: when we first meet him in the Gospels, he's hardly a gift. He's the vilest of offenders. But, when Jesus met him where he was in the lowest of his lows - the tax collector's booth - he pardoned him. Then, Jesus made the worst the first. There's a reason his Gospel is first in your New Testament. Here's a hint: It has less to do with Matthew and more to do with the power of God's unmerited favor. Matthew's life just may be like yours and mine more than you think.

One More Thing -

I have always been glad that the Psalmist said to God that some things were hard. There is no mistake about it; there are hard things in life.

Some beautiful pink flowers were given me this summer, and as I took them I said, "What are they?" And the answer came, "They are rock flowers; they grow and bloom only on rocks where you can see no soil." Then I thought of God's flowers growing in hard places; and I feel, somehow, that He may have a peculiar tenderness for His "rock flowers" that He may not have for His lilies and roses.
