A Message from Pastor Derrick

The Agape Design Redeeming Simplicity: An Exposition of 1 John #7 1 John 3:11-15

From the Big Dipper, to the Little Dipper, to Leo the Lion, constellations are groups of stars that form an imaginary outline or pattern in the heavens. Each time I see them, I am reminded of the Creator of the Universe: The God of the Bible.

Constellations, however, are not the only providential tools he uses to get our full attention. He's designed agape love in the same way and for the same reason. Agape was God's design from the beginning. It's His design for us now. And we learn about it today.

- 1. Vertical and Horizontal at the Same Time and In the Same Relationship (11-12;15)
  - Hate's vertical and horizontal connection
  - Agape's vertical and horizontal connection
- 2. True Condition of the World Apart from Christ (13)
  - From the Beginning
  - In the Old Covenant
  - In the New Covenant
- 3. A Living Miracle, Defying Natural Order (14)
  - Naturally From Life to Death
  - Miraculously From Death to Life Via Agape

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Genesis Church is again participating in Operation Christmas Child - a project of Samaritan's Purse, that has delivered 157 million gift-filled shoe boxes to boys and girls around the world.

If you did not get a shoebox this morning, you can pick one up next Sunday. Inside the boxes are directions on how to pack the shoe boxes and an envelope to put the $9.00 in for shipping. Checks are to be made out to Samaritan's Purse. The filled shoe boxes are due back on Sunday, November 17th, in order that they might be taken to the collection center that week. Your participation is a blessing and thank you for bringing the Gospel to children across the world. Any questions, please ask Kathi DeGroat.

One More Thing...

But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ . . . and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 2:4-6).

This is our rightful place, to be "seated in heavenly places in Christ Jesus," and to "sit still" there. But how few there are who make it their actual experience! How few, indeed think even that it is possible for them to "sit still" in these "heavenly places" in the everyday life of a world so full of turmoil as this.

We may believe perhaps that to pay a little visit to these heavenly places on Sundays, or now and then in times of spiritual exaltation, may be within the range of possibility; but to be actually "seated" there every day and all day long is altogether another matter; and yet it is very plain that it is for Sundays and weekdays as well.

A quiet spirit is of inestimable value in carrying on outward activities; and nothing so hinders the working of the hidden spiritual forces, upon which, after all, our success in everything really depends, as a spirit of unrest and anxiety.

There is immense power in stillness. A great saint once said, "All things come to him who knows how to trust and be silent." The words are pregnant with meaning. A knowledge of this fact would immensely change our ways of working. Instead of restless struggles, we would "sit down" inwardly before the Lord, and would let the Divine forces of His Spirit work out in silence the ends to which we aspire.

You may not see or feel the operations of this silent force, but be assured it is always working mightily, and will work for you, if you only get your spirit still enough to be carried along by the currents of its power.

--Hannah Whitall Smith

There is a point of rest
At the great center of the cyclone's force,
A silence at its secret source;
A little child might slumber undisturbed,
Without the ruffle of one fair curl,
In that strange, central calm, amid the mighty whirl.

It is your business to learn to be peaceful and safe in God in every situation. ---Streams in the Desert
