A Note from Pastor Derrick

THE LEAGUE OF PARDONED REBELS

PART III: JOHN, THE DISCIPLE JESUS LOVED

Pretty safe to say that if a fella feels so inclined to refer to himself in the third person, he probably wrote the book on Narcissistic Personality Disorder, isn't it? "Hey there, Slick. How are you?" "Well, Slick is just fine."

The odds are great ole Slick needs a psychiatrist to help him step away from the hubris ledge! Such a referral would bother me; I am sure it would bother you, too. I used to get bothered by one of Zebedee's boys named John because he refers to himself in the third person on multiple occasions as "the disciple Jesus loved."

I don't get bothered about it anymore because I know what he meant and what he didn't. My prayer after our study of this highly important and practical disciple is that you will understand God's love the same way he did.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED -- PRAYER MINISTRY FOR TEACHERS & STAFF AT IMAGINE SCHOOL

Teachers are a bright light in the lives of our children. They help mold their lives and hearts and they need our prayers. Libby has the names of all faculty and staff at Imagine School printed on Prayer Cards - organized by grade level. There are 12 groups - therefore, 12 volunteers are needed so that each group has someone praying for them.

A DUTY FREE LUNCH BREAK FOR TEACHERS AT IMAGINE SCHOOL

If you love interacting with kids then this is the right ministry for you. Imagine isn't funded at the same level as public schools. Most of the teachers pull double duty in the cafeteria every day; thereby very seldom getting a "real" lunch break. Lending a hand during the week of Nov. 5 - 9 from 10:30 - 12:00 or 12:00 - 1:30 would be a precious gift to them. Please call Libby (910-985-0079) if you feel led to volunteer for either of these worthwhile ministries.

One More Thing...

He went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when evening was come, he was there alone (Matthew 14:23).

The man Christ Jesus felt the need of perfect solitude--Himself alone, entirely by Himself, alone with Himself. We know how much friendships with others can draw us away from ourselves and exhausts our powers. The man Christ Jesus knew this, too, and felt the need of being by Himself again, of gathering all His powers, of realizing fully His high destiny, His human weakness, His entire dependence on the Father.

How much more does the child of God need this--himself alone with spiritual realities, himself alone with God the Father. If ever there was one who could dispense with special seasons for solitude and fellowship, it was our Lord. But He could not do His work or maintain His fellowship in full power, without His quiet time. Would God that every servant of His understood and practiced this blessed art, and that the Church knew how to train its children into some sense of this high and holy privilege, that every believer may and must have his time when he is indeed himself alone with God.

Oh, the thought to have God all alone to myself, and to know that God has me all alone to Himself!
