A Note From Pastor Derrick

"God Whispers to us in our pleasures, but shouts to us in our pains. It is his megaphone to rouse a deaf world." C. S. Lewis wrote that in his book The Problem of Pain. No truer words have been penned by a human being either.

Why doesn't God rescue me from difficult trials when I call his name? What have I done to deserve them?

Paul never entertained the thought of such questions, especially when he was on trial three separate times for his life. He saw trials as blessings instead. Do you?

Thanks & Praise

Update on Zander

The surgery on his elbow was successful.

He is breathing on his on and is out of the induced coma, although still sedated. He is saying a few words and still has a long road ahead of him with the next surgery being hip reconstruction. Please continue your prayers for both boys, their families and their friends.

And so we celebrated because the Lord had indeed worked Miracles for us.

~ Psalm 126:3

One More Thing...

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me
(Ps. 138:8)

There is a Divine mystery in suffering, a strange and supernatural power in it, which has never been fathomed by the human reason. There never has been known great saintliness of soul which did not pass through great suffering. When the suffering soul reaches a calm sweet carelessness, when it can inwardly smile at its own suffering, and does not even ask God to deliver it from suffering, then it has wrought its blessed ministry; then patience has its perfect work; then the crucifixion begins to weave itself into a crown.
