A Note From Pastor Derrick

Snake bit. Shipwrecked. Left for Dead. Barely Hanging On By a Few Old Threads.

That title is sort of a clever way of saying: "This is what God wants me to remember when things go wrong in my life, especially in areas beyond my control." We talk about this today in the conclusion of the Series Saul 2 Paul from Acts 27-28.

Blessings

What a blessing to witness the Baptism of Madeline Partee immediately following the church service. And what a blessing Madeline is to all of us.

God calls children a blessing and a gift! Their spirits are filled with innocence, joy and laughter. Jesus actually tells us to be like children and to come to Him full of faith and trust.

But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 19:14

Update on Zander and Zack

Zack had to undergo neck surgery after all and he is doing fine.

Zander's hip surgery was successful. He is now able to eat soft foods and he is sitting up. They are both holding their own and we are still praying that the long term prognosis is that they will both make full recoveries from their injuries.

I know the Lord is always with me.
I will not be shaken,
for He is right beside me.

-Psalm 16:8 LB

ONE MORE THING...

Paganini, the great violinist, came out before his audience one day and made the discovery just as they ended their applause that there was something wrong with his violin. He looked at it a second and then saw that it was not his famous and valuable one. He felt paralyzed for a moment, then turned to his audience and told them there had been some mistake and he did not have his own violin. He stepped back behind the curtain thinking that it was still where he had left it, but discovered that some one had stolen his and left that old second-hand one in its place.

He remained back of the curtain a moment, then came out before his audience and said, "Ladies and Gentlemen: I will show you that the music is not in the instrument, but in the soul." And he played as he had never played before; and out of that second-hand instrument, the music poured forth until the audience was enraptured with enthusiasm and the applause almost lifted the ceiling of the building, because the man had revealed to them that music was not in the machine but in his own soul.

It is your mission, tested and tried one, to walk out on the stage of this world and reveal to all earth and Heaven that the music is not in conditions, not in the things, not in externals, but the music of life is in your own soul. Excerpt from Streams in the Desert
